

ANA News - January 2020

1. Best Thesis Award 2019

2. FENS Forum Glasgow

3. ANA Travel Grants for FENS Forum

4. Save the date: ANA General Assembly

5. ANA Travel Grants for FENS Activities

6. Symposium Syngap1 and related disorders

7. FENS-SfN Summer School

8. Brain Conferences

9. The CAJAL Advanced Neuroscience Training Programme

10. ANA Partners

1. Best Thesis Award 2019: Please note the call on our homepage and send your application to the A President Isabella.Sarto-Jackson@kli.ac.at by 31 January 2020.

2. FENS Forum Glasgow: We are looking forward to a great program at the 12th FENS Forum in Glasgow July 2020. Early registration and abstract submission are already open. Please note important deadlines:

18 February 2020: Deadline for early registration and abstract submission

18 February 2020: Deadline for FENS/IBRO Travel Grant Applications. For details visit the website .

3. ANA Travel Grants for the FENS Forum Glasgow: ANA provides 6 Travel grants at 600 € each. Applicants are students and young PhDs (up to 3 years after graduation) who have not been successful with their FENS Travel Grant application. Please submit your abstract, a brief motivation letter, CV, and a letter of recommendation by your supervisor by 15 May 2020 to the ANA Secretary René Seiger rene.seiger@meduniwien.ac.at .

4. Save the date: We will hold our 2020 General Assembly in Glasgow on Sunday, 12 July after the plenary lecture. We also plan a get-together in a pub in Glasgow. Please watch out for the invitation to the General Assembly and details for our social thereafter.

5. ANA Travel Grants for FENS activities. ANA provides generous support for students and young PhDs who wish to attend FENS Schools, Cajal Courses, or Brain Conferences. Please screen our Website or the FENS Website for such events. If you have any questions you may contact the ANA Secretary René Seiger rene.seiger@meduniwien.ac.at.

6. Symposium: Syngap1 and related disorders: ANA is co-organizer of this symposium. This developmental disorders is an excellent example how basic neuroscience can contribute to the pathogenesis of neurological and psychiatric diseases. The symposium takes place 23-24 March 2020 at the CeMM. Admission is free, but registration is required via the symposium Website. Deadline for registration: 13 March 2020.

7. FENS-SfN Summer School "Artificial and natural computations for sensory perception: what is the link?"
Learn how to practically implement AI tools and apply them in concrete examples, relevant for experimental or theoretical neuroscience research. 7-13 June 2020, Bertinoro, Italy. Application deadline: 3 February 2020.

8. Brain Conference 2020 "RNA Mechanisms and Brain Disease", 21-24 June 2020, Rungstedgaard, north of Copenhagen, Denmark. This meeting will explore how neurons regulate RNA molecules and protein synthesis and how these mechanisms represent vulnerabilities for various neurological diseases. Early application deadline: 25 February 2020.

Brain Conference 2020 "Brain Stroke: Why, how and hope", 19-22 April 2020, Rungstedgaard, north of Copenhagen, Denmark. Leading experts from basic and clinical science will present their advances that contribute to a deeper mechanistic understanding of stroke. Regular application deadline: 12 February 2020

9. The CAJAL Advanced Neuroscience Training Programme.

Single cell profiling and analysis in neuroscience, 15 June - 3 July 2020, Bordeaux School of Neuroscience.

Application deadline: 2 March 2020.

Quantitative approaches to behaviour, 19 July - 8 August 2020, Champalimaud Centre for the Unknown.

Application deadline: 16 March 2020.

Computational Neuroscience, 10 - 28 August 2020, Champalimaud Centre for the Unknown

Application deadline: 16 March 2020.

10. ANA Partners: Quite some companies support our activities by being ANA Partners. With an annual fee of 300 € they may also enjoy benefits, such as reduced fees when exhibiting at our meeting. We encourage you to give preference to these companies whenever you buy equipment and consumables. We are also asking your support in finding new partners, as only with such sponsorship we are able to maintain our services on the long run.

Unsubscribe